

Dr Michal Unger is a lecturer in modern Jewish history at the Ashkelon Academic College. Her main publications are: Lodz: The Last Ghetto in Poland, Yad Vashem, 2005 (Hebrew). The English edition will be published next year by Alabama University Press; "The Status and Plight of Women in the Lodz Ghetto", Women in the Holocaust, Dalia Ofer and Lenore J. Weitzman (eds.), (New Haven and London: Yale University Press, 1998); "Reassessment of the Image of Mordechai Chaim Rumkowski," Search and Research Lectures and Papers, The International Institute for Holocaust Research at Yad Vashem, No. 6, 2004;. She edited the diaries: Josef Zelkowicz, In Those Terrible Days, Notes from the Lodz Ghetto (Jerusalem: Yad Vashem, 2002) and the diary of Jakub Poznański from the Lodz ghetto (will be published this year by Yad Vashem).