15. A summary of my activities and plans

My research focuses on three domains:

1. Gender
2. Multiculturalism and peace
3. The Druze Women

The domains often interrelate, for example, gender and peace exemplify an intersection of the first and the second domains. My research examines the roles of women at days of war and peace ,and on the impact of the Women's Involvement Association on coexistence (my research was published by the University of Haifa), in addition, I have published a booklet in English on the same subject.

The studies that are in preparation and almost completed:

1. Students' opinions towards murder of women. The sample included mostly the Arab population from north to south, for comparison purposes; there is a reference to the opinions of Jewish students as well. The Ethiopian society is examined separately.
2. I have conducted a massive research on the subject of high school student' opinions towards women's status and position in society. The sample includes interviews of 1000 student from the Negev on the South to the Golan Heights in the North. The study will be submitted to the Ministry of Education scientist.
3. I am part of a research group that examines teachers' cultural- skills and competences. The research was submitted to The MOFET Institute (a center for the Research, curriculum and program development in teacher education).
4. I participate in of a research group that inquires "Women agencies in relation to ethno-national structures of power and influence (a narrative research). The research examines the status of varied groups of women in the Israeli society and their attitude towards their position in society. The research is in collaboration with the Ben-Gurion University, headed by Prof. Ayelet Harel and Dr. Becky Koo. My part in the research is related to Druze women.
5. I take part in an observation group of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, led by Prof. Shalva Weil.
6. I conduct a research with my colleague Limor Yehuda a on the subject of majority and minority relations on the issue of violence in Israel .In addition, we examine the issue of women's murder.
7. I have started a month ago a research on women-Druze medical students.

Research programs in preparation stages:

1. Updating the books of the Druze woman. First edition was published on the year 2005.
2. Towards the end of the book "Women in the Height" about the Druze women in the Golan Heights.
3. I have published my book "Women in a Different Reality" which explores the involvement of women at times of peace and war and the impact associated with this involvement.
4. Editing a book of Israeli female poets' songs at war in Arabic and Hebrew that I had initiated.
5. I am publishing my book on women's short stories, my own writing.

In The college

As part of my role as chair of the Academic Committee in Partnership Together. I strengthened the connection between the partnership and the college

It started with a conference I initiated in Budapest in 2018 where I invited two lecturers from the college to take part in it: Dr. Haim Sperber and Dr. Julia Schwartzman. And we put the college logo

In conference publications.

I also created two international courses, one on the subject of society and culture in Israel. I taught this course to students from Budapest and Dayton (USA) together with lecturers from both universities. The second course was on multiculturalism and photography.
